HOW TO CURE CONSUMPTION.

THE PHILOSOPHY OF DR. SCHENCK'S GREAT MEDICINES.—Will people never learn to know that a diseased liver and stomach necessarily disease the entire system? The plainest principles of common sense teach this and yet there are hundreds who ridicule the idea, and continue in the course which almost inevitably brings them prematurely to the grave. Living as the majority of the people do, in complete variance with the laws of nature, it must be apparent to all that, sooner or later, nature will revenge herself. Hence we find that persons who indulge to excess in the use of very rich or indigestible food or intoxicating drinks, invariably pay a heavy penalty in the end. The stomach becomes disordered and refuses to act: the liver fails to perform its functions, dyspepsia and its attendant evils follow, and still the suffering individuals persist in clinging to the thoroughly exploded idea of the past. Dr. SCHENK'S medicines are recommended to all such. They bring sure and certain relief wherever they are used as directed, and all that is necessary to establish their reputation with every ailing man or woman in the landis a fair and impartial trial of them. Let those who are skeptical on this point, and who have permitted interested persons to prejudice them against these now celebrated remedies for consumption, discard their prejudices, and be governed by the principles of reason and common sense. If the system is disordered depend upon it, in nine cases out of ten the seat of the disorder will be found in the stomach and liver. To cleanse and invigorate the stomach and to stimulate the liver to healthy action, use

SCHENCK'S MANDRAKE PILLS.—The daily increasing demand for these pills in the best evidence of their value. Thousands upon thousands of boxes are sold daily. Why? Simply because they act promptly and efficiently. Invalids who may not find it convenient to call on Dr. SCHENCK in person are informed that full and complete directions for use accompany each package of the MANDRAKE PILLS, PULMONIC SYRUP AND SEAWEED TONIC.—These medicines will cure consumption unless the lungs are so far gone that the patient is entire ly beyond the reach of medical relief.

It may be asked by those who are not familiar with the virtues of these great remedies, "How do Dr. Schenck's medicines effect their wonderful cures of Consumption?"

The answer is a simple one. They begin their work of restoration by bringing the stomach, liver and bowels into an active healthy condition. It is food that cures this formidable disease. SCHENCK'S MANDRAKE PILLS act on the liver and stomach, promoting healthy secretion, and removing the bile and slime which have resulted from the inactive or torpid condition of those organs, and of the system generally. This sluggish state of the body, and the consequent accumulation of the unhealthy substances named prevent the proper digestion of food, and, as a natural consequence creates disease, which results in prostration and finally in death.

SCHENCK'S PULMONIC SYRUP and SEAWEED TONIC, when taken regularly, mingle with the food, and the digestive organs, make good and rich blood, and as a natural consequence, give flesh and strength to the patient. Let the faculty say what it may, this is the only true cure for consumption. Experience has proved beyond the shadow of a doubt, and thousands are to-day alive and well who a few years since were regarded as hopeless cases, but who were induced to try Dr. SCHENCK'S remedies, and were restored to permanent health by their use.

One of the first steps the physician should take with a consumptive patient is to invigorate the system. Now how is this to be done? Certainly not by giving medicines that exhaust and enervate—medicines that impair instead of improve the functions of the digestive organs Doctor SCHENCK'S medicines cleanse the stomach and bowels of all substances which are calculated to irritate or weaken them. They create an appetite, promote healthful digestion—make good blood, and, as a consequence, they invigorate and strengthen the entire system and more especially those parts which are diseased If this cannot be done, then the case must be regarded as a hopeless one.

If the physician finds it impossible to make a patient feel hungry, if the closed-up pores cannot partake of good nourishing food and properly digest it, it is impossible that he can gain in flesh and strength; and it is equally impossible to bring a patient to this condition so long as the liver is burdened with diseased bile, and the stomach laden with unhealthy slime.

Almost the first request made to the physician by a consumptive patient is that he will prescribe medicines that will allay the cough, night sweats and chills, which are the same attendants on consumption? But this should not be done, as the cough is only an effort of nature to relieve itself, and the night sweats and chills are caused by the diseased lungs. The remedies ordinarily prescribed do more harm than good. They impair the functions of the stomach, impede healthy digestion, and aggravate rather than cure the disease.

There is, after all, nothing like facts which to substantiate a position, and it is upon facts that Dr. Schenck's relies. Nearly all who have take n his medicines in accordance with his directions have not only been cured of consumption, but, from the fact that these medicines act with wonderful power upon the digestive organs, patients thus cured speedily gain flesh. Cleansing the system of all impurities, they lay the foundation for a solid, substantial structure. Restoring these organs to health, they create an appetite. The food is properly assimilated; the quantity of blood is not only increased, but is made rich and strong and in the face of such a condition of the system all disease must be banished.

Full directions accompany each of the medicines, so that it is not absolutely necessary that patients should see Dr SCHENCK personally, unless they desire to have their lungs examined. For this purpose he is at his office, No. 15 North Sixth St., corner of Commerce, Phila., every Saturday, from 9 A. M. until 1 P. M.

Advice is given without charge, but for a thorough examination with the Respirometer the charge is $3.

Price of the Pulmonic Syrup and Seaweed Tonic each, $1.50 per bottle, or $7.50 a half dozen. Mandrake Pills 25 cents a box. For sale by all druggists. Ap.12 ly.

JURY COMMISSIONER.—It is not generally known, but is nevertheless the fact that the law establishing the office of Jury Commissioner provides that no incumbent shall be elected for two terms in succession.

☞ We are requested by the Chairman of the County Committee to announce that a Republican Mass Meeting will be held in this place on Wednesday evening, Sept. 28, and that eminent speakers will be present. Cyrus Elder, Esq., will speak at the Court House on Saturday evening next.

☞ The Legislature of 1871, to be chosen this Fall, will be the most important one for many years. It has the choice of United States Senator for six years, from March 4, 1872, in place of Senator Cameron. It will be its duty to re-apportion the State into Congressional districts, under the census of 1870. It will also be called upon to re-apportion the State into Senatorial and Representative districts. It will also be required to act upon the report of the Commissioners to revise the civil code of the State.—Last and equally important, it will have to decide upon the question of Constitutional Reform, and is expected to authorize the calling of a State Convention for that purpose It is to be hoped that Republicans in Republican districts, will see the necessity of straining every nerve to secure a majority in each House, so as to be prepared for the work in hand.

MORE REPUBLICAN VICTORIES.—The campaign of 1870 opens gloriously, and the great hue and cry of defeat, which the Democrats have raised and which some timid Republicans were too apt to believe, is being dispelled by the news from Vermont so steady and true, and Maine, so gallant and sound.

The news from Vermont, which voted on the first Tuesday of September, is that the Republicans elected the Governor by 22,000 majority, carried all the members of Congress, and both Houses of the Legislature by overwhelming majorities.

The news from Maine, which voted on Monday, is not yet complete, but Sidney Perham, the Republican candidate for Governor, has an increased majority of 1000 in the same towns for Chamberlain last year. The whole five Congressmen are elected by handsome majorities, and the Legislature is largely Republican in both branches.

Wyoming, Colorado and Wilmington have all done nobly.

THE WAR.

There have been no great battles since our last issue. The Prussian armies are closing in on Paris, and the city at last accounts, is completely environed. Gen. Trochu is reported to be quite confident that the city is now able to resist attack and prepared to withstand a seige. It is given out that the Prussians will not bombard or attempt to storm the town, but starve it into conditional surrender. According to the programme, the Prussians have seven army corps now before Paris.

The French fortresses at Strasburg, and Metz had not capitulated at last accounts, but it is not thought they can hold out much longer. Tous, and Toul, and several other French towns, have been bombarded by the Prussians. Heavy siege guns are being brought into play, by the Prussians; for the purpose of reducing their strongholds. A great number of valuable bridges around Paris have been blown up; the beautiful Bois de Boulogne is ruined; nothing is spared to defend Paris.

Negotiations for peace are looked for with some promise of success. It is thought Paris will not hold out long, and therefore the prospects are brighter. The French Republic has been formally recognized by the United States, Spain, Italy, Portugal and Switzerland. King William still ignores it, preferring to deal with the dead Napoleonic dynasty rather than with the new Republic.

The captured Louis Napoleon is still at Williamshohe, a magnificent royal castle in Hesseo Cassel. The late Empress and Prince Imperial are in England.

The Prospects.

A Democratic newspaper has credit for the following item in reference to What that party expects in the coming political campaign:

"With the Pennsylvania Legislature Democratic, an apportionment would be secured that would make our State Democratic as long as our party deserved success. This, Democrats, is what we fight for."

And this is the clearest definition of the effect of the campaign that can be given. The Democrats will fight for it, as they know upon their success depends the restoration of their chances for a number of years to come. What is to prevent them, if successful at the next election, from so apportioning the districts that the Republican vote would be a mere negation? Nothing whatever. If they get the power in the Legislature, the chances are theirs to make the State Democratic, as districts which are now closely contested would be so cut up that the Democratic ticket would always be successful. Republicans should bear this in mind during the campaign. We must not think there is nothing worth fighting for this year, for there is. The apportionment of the State will be in the hands of the next Senate and House, and the party in the majority will make the apportionment. If Republicans do not want the State lost to them in the future, they must work for the success of their Legislative candidates this year.

☞ We are grieved to hear of the death of Hon. JONATHAN MCWILLIAMS, a native of this county, but latterly a resident of McVeytown. He was at one time Associate Judge of this county. He had lived his threescore and ten, and they were years of industry and usefulness, to himself, his Maker, and his fellow-man. Few men took as active a part in the temperance movement, which originated in this country in his younger days, and with which he at once became connected, and fought manfully against great opposition, and when none were found to aid him. He saw the ruin it entailed upon his fellow-men, and actuated by the purest motives of philanthrophy he raised his voice and wielded his pen against the monster. He rejoiced, however, that he had lived to see the progress which the vast army of temperance advocates had made, as was indicated in his recent letters in the Globe, over the signature of "H. C B." He was not only a philanthropist but a patriot. During the rebellion his voice and pen were alike active in diffusing the spirit of patriotism, and his appeals were earnest and soul-inspiring. He had many friends, for he had befriended many, and they, with us, will revere the memory of his acts of kindness and devotion. In the words of one whom he had befriended, we can say, "we had hoped he might live many years yet to cheer the pathway of his many friends, but, alas, he has gone to 'join the innumerable caravan that moves to the pale realms of shade.'" May he rest in peace!

A GOOD PAPER.—We have before us a copy of the Philadelphia Trade Journal, published weekly by Wm. C. Harris & Co., No. 125 South Third Street, Philadelphia. It is in quarto form, and contains seven columns to the page, thus making it one of the largest papers in the city. We are gratified in looking over its pages to find it fat with advertisements, besides giving a variety of reading matter, together with a full price list of all the commercial and financial commodities in the market. The latter is a specialty that should induce our merchants to subscribe, as many a dollar is saved by knowing what the market price is. It has a large circulation in the Middle, Southern and Western States, which makes it valuable as an advertising medium for business men everywhere. Taken all in all, it is a paper well worth the price of subscription—$3,00 per annum.

WHEN AN OFFICER CAN MAKE AN ARREST.—A party tried at the recent court in Montgomery county, for assaulting an officer made the point in his defence that the officer had no warrant for his arrest, whereupon the Court defined the rights and duties of police officers as follows:

An officer, as any private citizen, has the right and it is his duty to prevent a crime with or without a warrant; and where a breach of the peace is imminent he ought to make an arrest and follow in pursuit, with or without a warrant. Whenever the officer has the offender within his view at the time of committing the offence he has the right to make the arrest with or without a warrant. He has the power when the offence is committed in his view, but when he acts on the information of others he must have a proper authority. In this case the officer saw the affray or fight, which was stopped by his approach. He had the right to arrest the offenders.

IMPORTANT TO VOTERS.—Many persons are under the impression that voters who were registered last year need not be registered again. This is a mistake. Yearly registration is required, and persons who have not yet been registered this year should have their names placed on the list at once, as a failure to attend to this important matter may result in the loss of a vote on the part of the careless.

Bears are ravaging the oat fields in Osgood and Templeton, Canada, the late fires having driven them from their runs. The Ottawa Free Press vouches for the fact that a sagacious old brute, with her cubs in the rear, walked boldly through the harvest hands and carried off four sheaves of oats in her forepaws, into the woods.

"I require," said a sage of the Indian tribe of Penobscots, "but three things to make me happy." "What is the first?" inquired a seeker of wisdom.—"Tobacco," was the reply. "What is the second?" "Rum." Well, what is the third?" "Why," said the philosopher, contemplatively, "a little more rum."

A Christian was brought before a magistrate for an unprovoked assault on a Jew. "What had he done that you should knock him down?" asked the judge. "Done! why, isn't he one of the bloody Jews that crucified our Savior?" "But," remonstrated the magistrate, "all that happened nearly two thousand years ago." "Did it: Why, I only heard of it last night," answered the overzealous convert.

SECOND ANNUAL AGRICULTURAL FAIR OF THE ALTOONA PARK ASSOCIATION, TO BE HELD AT Altoona, Pa., Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. October 4th, 5th 6th and 7th, '70. $4,500,00 In Premiums! Competion open to all parts of the State! The Association takes pleasure in calling the attention of the public to the very liberal premiums offered this year. They equal those of the State Society, on similar classes. The design of this liberality is to produce friendly competition, and at the same time remunerate exhibitors and visitors. The premiums on thoroughbred horses and cattle amount to over $600,00, and all the other classes are equally liberal. For the ladies, some $300,00 worth of silver ware has been purchased, and will be distributed as premiums for the work of their hands. These premiums range in value from $1,00 up to $15,000, and many of the articles are beautiful, and the Managers believe they will be prized much more than the same amount paid in money. For full particulars, see premium list, published in pamphlet form, and to be hand of any of the officers or Managers. New buildings will be added to those already on the ground, and everything provided for the convenience of exhibitors and satisfaction of visitors.

This is the largest combination of Circus & Menagerie now before the people as will seen by their advertisement in to-day's paper, and it will be well for our people who attend the Fair to while away a happy hour or so by going to see it on Friday.

The list of animals comprises the African Elephant, Selim; African Zebra, Queen and Colt; white Bactrian Camel, or sacred camel of the Orientals; Royal Bengal tiger; mammoth grizzly bear, largest ever captured; cheetahs, or hunting leopards; African and Asiatic lions, splendid specimens of both varieties; the true Ibex, captured in Abyssinia during the incursion of the English against the Emperor Theodorus; monster white grizzly bear from Alaska, beside dozens of varieties of different wild animals which can be seen in the dens Signor Bazaine, the renowned lion king will enter these dens during each performance. The circus will be found excellent in all its departments, and comprises the following in its long list of talented artists: Madame Brown, the queen of manege; Little Mary Brown, the premier child equestrienne of the world, and Mlle Josephine, the dashing equestrienne. There will also be a grand street parade about 10 a. m. Admission, 50 cents; children under 10 years 25 cents.

At this exhibition the people will find the circus and Menagerie departments replete with all that combines to interest, amuse and instruct. Great expense has been lavished upon the paraphernalia of the concern, and it will be with the price of admission, (which is the same for both departments,) to witness the grand street parade that will take place in the morning This will probably be the last show of the season, and lovers of sport and admirers of animals will govern themselves accordingly.

☞ "The proof of the pudding is in the eating of it," as the adage runs, applies well to the quality of bread and cakes daily furnished by Luke Reilly to his numerous customers. No one can complain of the taste of these eatables, for one taste only makes you desire more. In connection with the Bakery he has a first class candy manufactory, and he can supply customers and dealers with confectionery as good as can be had in the city, and at far cheaper rates. Dealers in the county ould do well to try him.

☞ We take pleasure in announcing to our customers and everybody else that we have just arrived from the east with as fine a stock of goods as ever came to central Pennsylvania.—Everybody is invited to come and see them and judge for yourselves. We do not hesitate in showing goods, buy or no buy. All kinds of grain or produce taken in exchange.

AGENTS Wanted for SATAN IN SOCIETY

A NEW BOOK of the greatest interest and importance Written from a high moral and physiological standpoint by an eminent physician and med cal professor, it shows how Satan is working out his subtle and dangerous designs through our most sacred domestic and social relations Pure and bold, but outspoken and aggressive, the author handles the delicate subjects treated of without gloves. But in such a manner as not to minister to a prurient curiosity. The Physical Degeneration of the Race, is a subject justly enlisting the interest and sympathy of all true philanthropists, and this book, it is believed, will contribute to that end just in proportion as it has evidence. A circular sent free, containing a full description and synopsis of the work with liberal contracts. C. F. VENT, Publisher,

ROSADALIS

THE Great American Health Restorer, purifies the blood and cures Scrofula, Syphilis, skin diseases, Rheumatism Diseases of Women and all diseases arising from Impure Blood and Biliousness. Recommended by the Medical Faculty and thousands of our best citizens.

Read the testimony of Physicians and patients who have used Rosadalis and for our Household Guide to Health or Almanac for this year, which we publish for gratuit ous distribution; it will give you much valuable information.

Dr. R. W. Carr, of Baltimore says:
I take pleasure in recommending your Rosadalis as a very powerful alterative. I have seen it used in two cases with happy results—one in case of secondary syphilis in which the patient pronounced himself cured after having taken five bottles of your medicine. The other in a case of scrofula of long standing, which is rapidly improving under its use, and the indications are that the patient will soon recover. I have carefully examined the formula by which your Rosadalis is made, and find it an excellent compound of alterative ingredients.

Dr. Sparks of Nicholasville, Ky., says he has used Rosadalis in cases of erysipelas and secondary syphilis with satisfactory result—as a cleanser of the blood I know no better remedy.

Jas. and G. McFadden, Murfreesboro' Tennessee, says:
I have used seven bottles of Rosadalis, and am entirely cured of Rheumatism. I read one four bottles, as I wish it for my brother, who has scrofulous sore eyes.

Benjamin Bechtol, of Lima, Ohio, writes, I have suffered for twenty years with an inveterate eruption over my body. In a short time after I purchased a bottle of Rosadalis and it effected a perfect cure.

Rosadalis is sold by Jno Read and S. S. Smith, Huntingdon, Pa. and Druggists generally.
